

SYDNEY SWANS HQ AND COMMUNITY CENTRE
LOCKER AUCTION

PRESENTED BY QATAR
AIRWAYS القطرية

THE SYDNEY SWANS MEN'S LOCKER ROOM IS STEEPED IN HISTORY.

Each locker is adorned with the names of those players whose impact on the Bloods is enduring.

Every time a player enters, they are surrounded by the legacy of those who came before.

The names of captains, Club Champions, premierships heroes, Brownlow medallists, Hall of Famers and Life Members etched on to the locker doors is not just recognition for greats of the past, but inspiration for the team of today to create their own history.

When Sydney Swans co-captain Callum Mills stands at locker number 14, standing with him are a long line of Swans champions, spanning more than 100 years. They include early premierships heroes Jack Howell (1918) and Bill Faul (1933) and Bloods Legends Bob Skilton and Paul Kelly.

The locker room is a place for the Swans of today, to be inspired by the Bloods of the past.

And that is why it is such a special place.

HISTORY WILL BE MADE

In the Sydney Swans AFLW locker room, the locker doors are a blank canvas.

The challenge awaits our team of pioneering women to leave to a legacy behind.

Rather than following history, they will be creating it.

When the Swans AFLW team runs out on to the field for the first game, it will be a moment nearly 150 years in the making.

For the first time, the famous Swans red and white, will be represented in an elite women's competition.

The team will create history.

And back in the locker room, each player will be striving to leave their own legacy for the next generation to aspire to. To leave their mark and etch their achievements in Bloods history.

In an extraordinary season for the Sydney Swans, history will be made.

INAUGURAL AFLW CAPTAIN

2022 -

PLAYERS WHO EARN ANY OF THE FOLLOWING ACCOLADES ARE RECOGNISED ON THEIR CORRESPONDING LOCKER NUMBER.

CLUB CHAMPION

Awarded annually for the player voted, by the match committee, as the best of the season. The Club Champion is awarded the Bob Skilton medal, named in honour of the Bloods Legend who earned an incredible nine Club Champion awards from 1958-1968.

BROWNLOW

First awarded in 1924, the award is bestowed on the best and fairest player in the competition during the home and away season. A record number of 11 individual Swans have claimed the honour, with Bob Skilton (3) and Adam Goodes (2) both multiple winners.

CAPTAIN/CO-CAPTAIN

To captain your club is one of the most significant honours in football. Much more than leading the team on to the ground, the captain (often co-captains) set the standards and drive the playing group to success.

HALL OF FAME

Entry into the Swans Hall of Fame is bestowed upon those individuals have made the most significant impact on the club, in its near 150-year history. There are currently 73 inductees into the Swans Hall of Fame, including eight Bloods Legends.

PREMIERSHIP PLAYER

To be a premiership player is the most coveted success in Australian football. The Holy Grail. In nearly 150 years of history, just ten Swans teams have achieved the ultimate success in the VFA, VFL and modern day AFL; 1881, 1885, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1909, 1918, 1933, 2005 and 2012. Each locker is adorned with the names of those players whose impact on the Bloods is enduring.
